

FAMILY TREASURE

A game to do as a family.

You need to prepare the cards and you need a dice.

Preparations:

Print pages 2-7 (The dots)

Print on the back of these pages pages 8-13 (The questions)

Cut out the cards and pile them up - the same number of dots in the same pile.

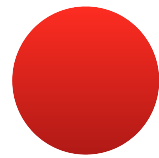

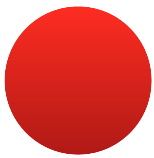

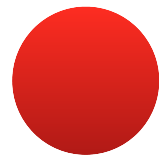

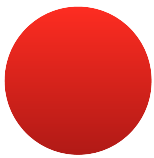

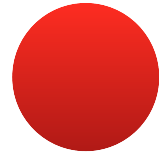

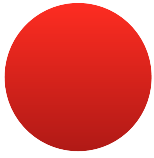

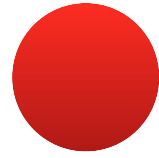

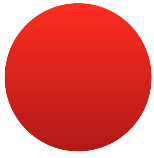

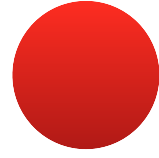

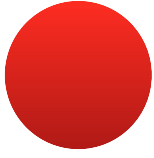

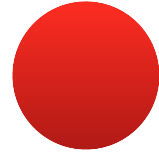

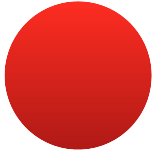

Roll a dice and take the card with the same number of dots as the dice show.

Read and answer/do what the card says.

Some cards are empty. You can on them write down questions you want to ask each other.

Be aware of the treasure you have in your family = all of you!

Write your name with the hand that you are not used to writing with.

Make a pyramid of everyone so that as few hands and feet as possible are on the floor.

Take someone who is a similar height to you. Stand facing one another with your feet touching. Hold one another's hands and lean backwards. Sit down and then stand up in this position. Try several times.

Let each person share a topic of conversation that they want to talk about as a family. Write them down and talk about them at another time.

Tell a story together. Start with making one sentence, then continue to the right of you until everyone gets to add to the story. Begin with: "Once upon a time..."

Offer everyone something to eat right now.

Sing your national song together.

Sing a song that you like a lot.

Take the person sitting to the right of you and wheelbarrow him/her around the room.

Do 10 push-ups. If you can't, ask for help.

Let everyone answer:

What is the favorite colour of the person sitting to your right?

What makes you feel happy/not happy in our family?

Let everyone answer:

What is the favorite food of the person sitting to your right?
