KKI 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Hello everyone, and greetings from KKI Lebanon!

As God has been speaking to us as a movement about ”A New Way for a New Day,” we began prayerfully reading the book of Joshua. We read it again and again, seeking and asking the Lord to speak to us.

In this short document, you will find a variety of creative prayer stations. Please feel free to use them as they are or adapt them in any way that best fits your context.

These stations can be used in different ways:

- Prayer stations spread throughout a large room, allowing everyone to move from one station to another at their own pace.
- A prayer room with the stations set up, where people can visit and engage with them at any time.

Here are few suggestions to make it better:

- play instrumental music in the background
- Have an “instruction paper” for each chair at the station.
- For bigger groups you can duplicate stations.

We pray these prayer stations will be a blessing to all of you as you celebrate KKI's 50th Anniversary.

With love and blessings,

KKI Lebanon

10. JUBILEE YEAR – MEGA SABATH

1. Altar of Memory

And Joshua set up at Gilgal the twelve stones they had taken out of the Jordan. He said to the Israelites, “In the future when your descendants ask their parents, ‘What do these stones mean?’ tell them, ‘Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.’ For the Lord your God dried up the Jordan before you until you had crossed over... He did this so that all the peoples of the earth might know that the hand of the Lord is powerful and so that you might always fear the Lord your God.

Joshua 4:20-24

Station Prep:

Lay out a small carpet to sit on and a pile of 12 stones in front of the carpet.

Material:

- Small carpet
- 12 stones
- Printed explanation

Joshua 4:20-24

Take time to remember the miracles God has done in your life and in KKI in your nation, the people He’s brought into the ministry, the words He has spoken over it, the miracles, provisions etc. As you stack each stone, declare what God has done for KKI. By doing this, you are giving thanks and praise to God and you’re building up your faith.

2- Repentance & Consecration

Then Joshua said to the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.”

Joshua 3: 5

Station Prep:

Place on a table as many hearts as needed (at least one per person); more is better and two hearts glued together as in the picture below. Put some pencils and erasers.

Material:

- As many hearts as needed
- Pencils
- Erasers
- Table and chairs
- Printed explanation

Repentance & Consecration

Then Joshua said to the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.”

Joshua 3: 5

Read the Scripture. Spend some time praying and asking God to show you any sin in your life that you need to confess to Him. Write your prayers on one side of the heart. Ask God to help you change and to have victory. There's not a single sin in your life that is too difficult for God to break or that stops Him from loving you!

Then take time to consecrate yourself to God and write your prayer on the other side of the heart.

3. Follow His Presence

Giving orders to the people: “When you see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the Levitical priests carrying it, you are to move out from your positions and follow it. 4 Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before.

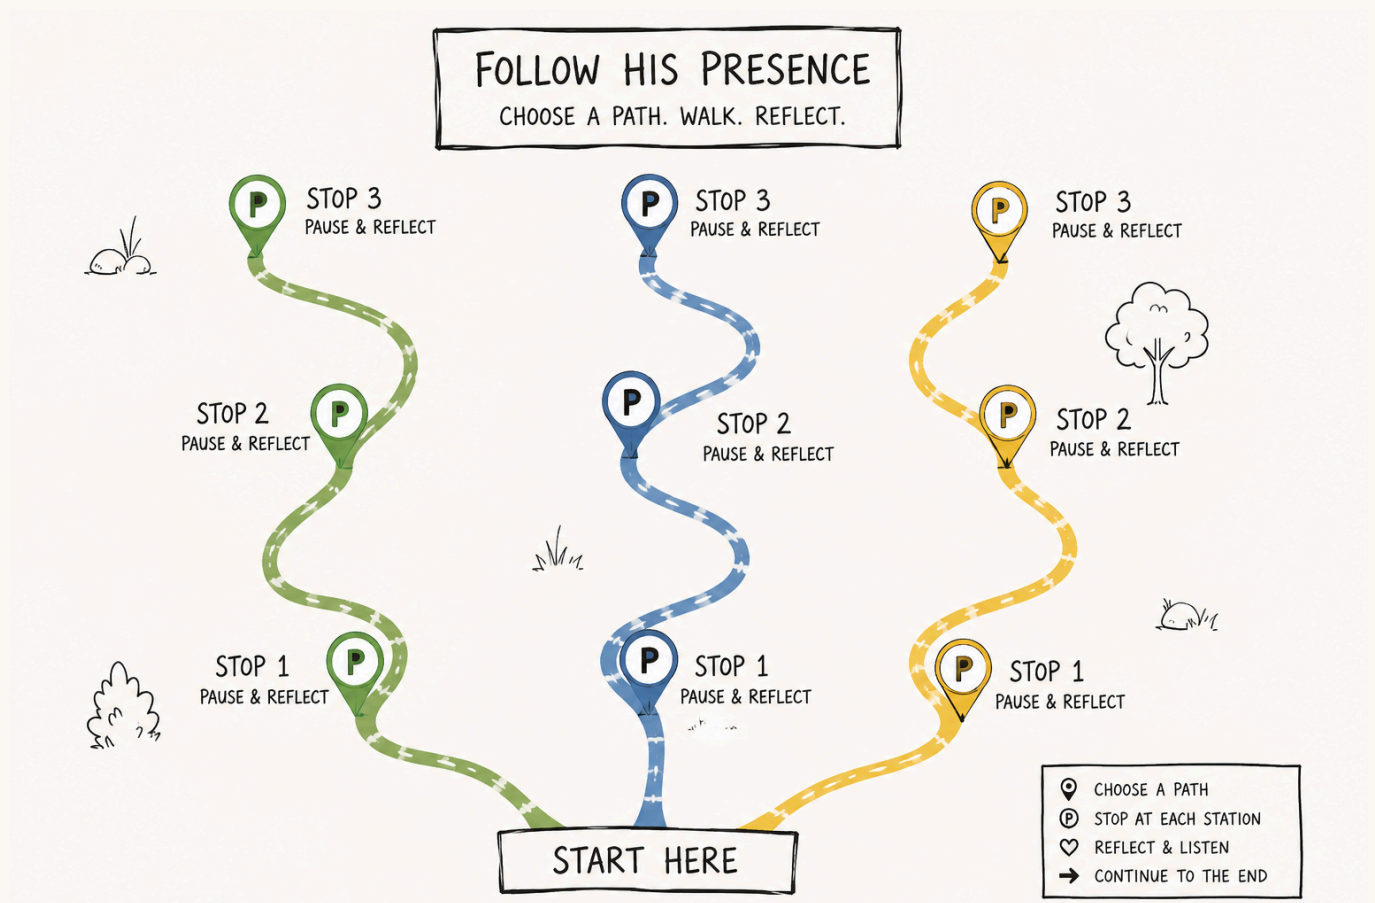

Joshua 3: 3,4b

Station Prep:

Prep the paths with tape, you can make 2 or 3 paths depending on the space you have.

Material:

- Map
- Tape
- Printed explanation, (3) copies, placed at the start of each line.

Follow His Presence

3 giving orders to the people: “When you see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the Levitical priests carrying it, you are to move out from your positions and follow it. 4 Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before.

Joshua 3: 3,4b

As the Israelites prepared to enter a new season and cross the Jordan River, God gave them a simple instruction: follow His presence. The Ark of the Covenant represented God's presence among His people. They were not to run ahead or choose their own way. Instead, they were to keep their eyes on the Ark and follow wherever God led them.

As you walk along this path, take this paper with you and remember to put it back when you're done. Take time to pause and reflect on your own journey with God. Walk slowly and prayerfully, inviting the Holy Spirit to speak to you. Reflect on where God has been leading you and how He has been present with you along the way.

At each stop, reflect on:

- Lord, what are You trying to say to me in this season?
- What are You trying to encourage me in?
- Is there something You are inviting me to trust You with?
- Is there an area where You are asking me to take a step of faith?
- Where have I seen Your presence leading me recently?
- Is there something You are asking me to let go of or leave behind?
- How can I become more attentive to Your presence in my daily life?

Take a moment at each stop to listen. Don't rush. Allow God to remind you of His faithfulness, reveal His heart, and guide your next steps as you follow His presence.

4. You are chosen, called and appointed by God

Joshua 1: 9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.

1 Tim. 1: 7 For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline.

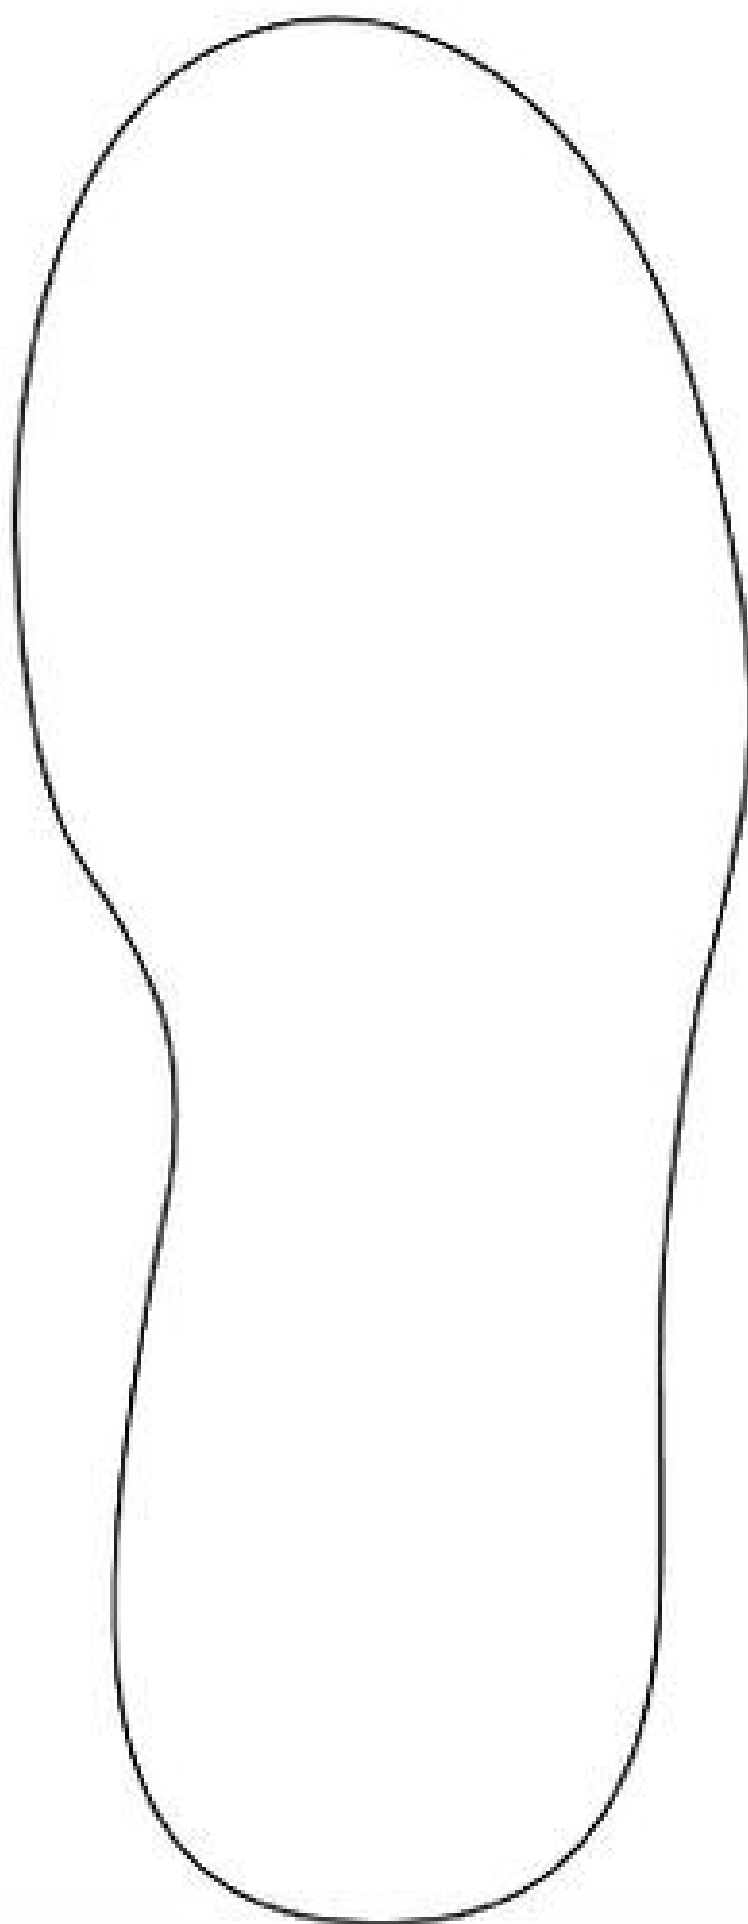

Station Prep:

Place on a table: paper tape, lots of footprint cutouts, pencils, erasers, paper tape and the printed explanation paper.

Material:

- footprint cutouts
- Pencils, erasers
- Paper tape
- Printed explanation

You are chosen, called and appointed by God

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.

Joshua 1: 9

For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline. 1 Tim. 1: 7

Take some time to remember and write down your calling on one of the footprint cutouts. By doing so, you are declaring that God is the One who called you, and that He has promised to be with you wherever He leads you.

Place the tape over your mouth and feet.

Fear, insecurity, conflict, and other voices may have tried to silence you or keep you from walking in the calling God has placed on your life. But this is not God's desire for you.

Take a moment to ask Jesus to reveal any fears that have been holding you back. Name them before Him, renounce them, and invite Him to set you free. Receive from Him His courage, peace, and freedom.

When you are ready, remove the tape as a prophetic sign that you are no longer bound by fear, but are free to walk boldly in the calling God has given you.

Receive the boldness, courage, and strength that come from the Lord. Remember: the One who has called you is faithful, and He will be with you wherever you go

5. He is our captain/our Lord

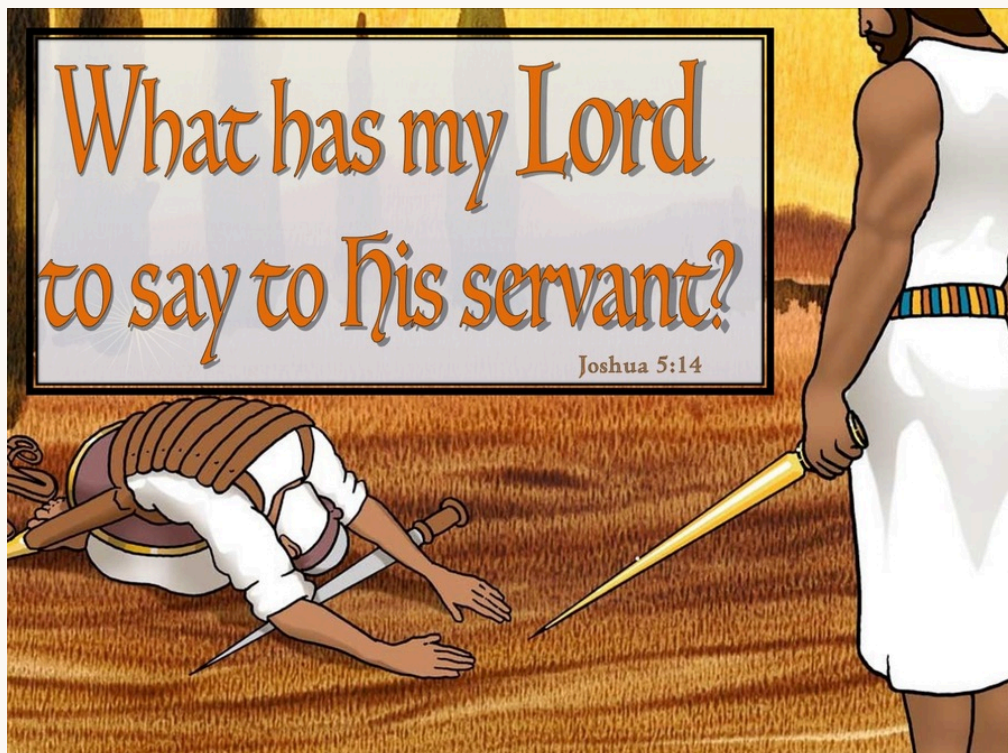

Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, “Are you for us or for our enemies?” “Neither,” he replied, “but as commander of the army of the Lord I have now come.” Then Joshua fell facedown to the ground in reverence, and asked him, “What message does my Lord have for his servant?” The commander of the Lord’s army replied, “Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did so. Joshua 5: 13 – 15

Station Prep:

Place on a small table lots of crowns and a cross nearby.

Material:

- Crowns
- Cross

Take one of the crowns that are available and place it over your head. The crown represents your position, gifts, experience, what you are doing and what you will do - Bring down your crown and place it at the feet of the cross declaring Him KING over you and all you do. Be still before Him, take time to worship and to declare him Lord over.....

6. Inheritance:

I will give you every place where you set your foot, as I promised Moses.
Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their ancestors to give them.
Joshua 1:3,6

Station Prep:

Place on a table: A4 papers, pencils, and crayons. Put enough chairs around the table, and you may want to put a nice cover on the table.

Material:

- A4 papers or drawing paper
- Pencils, erasers, and crayons
- Printed explanation

Inheritance

I will give you every place where you set your foot, as I promised Moses. Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their ancestors to give them.

Joshua 1:3,6

Draw an outline of the country you're serving in. Wait on the Lord then write or draw on the sketched map your inheritance. By faith ask the Lord for it.

Examples:

- I want to see many kids&youth workers that know God's heart for the kids and youth they work with.
- I want to see the young generations in my church know God, very much in love with Him and easily dependant on Him.
- I want the youth in my ministry to have an identity that is secure and anchored in Him.

7. Meditating on God's Word

7 Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go. 8 Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. Joshua 1:7,8

Station Prep:

Set up a small table with a nice table cloth, a lit candle, a Bible (possibly on a stand) open to a short passage of Scripture, and a chair. If there is a large group, this could also be done as a small group experience. You might want to pray about a passage God has on His heart for this particular group to meditate on, and print a few pages of that passage.

Material:

- Wooden Bible stand (optional)
- Bible
- Extra Bibles (various languages if needed)
- Printed pages of specific passages from Joshua 1 to 5
- Nice place to sit
- Candle (or night light)
- Printed explanation

- 1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' assistant,
- 2 "Moses my servant is dead. Therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, into the land that I am giving to them, to the people of Israel."
- 3 Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given to you, just as I promised to Moses.
- 4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun shall be your territory.
- 5 No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you or forsake you."
- 6 Be strong and courageous, for you shall cause this people to inherit the land that I swore to their fathers to give them.
- 7 Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law that Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go."
- 8 This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way

Joshua 1:9-18

9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.”

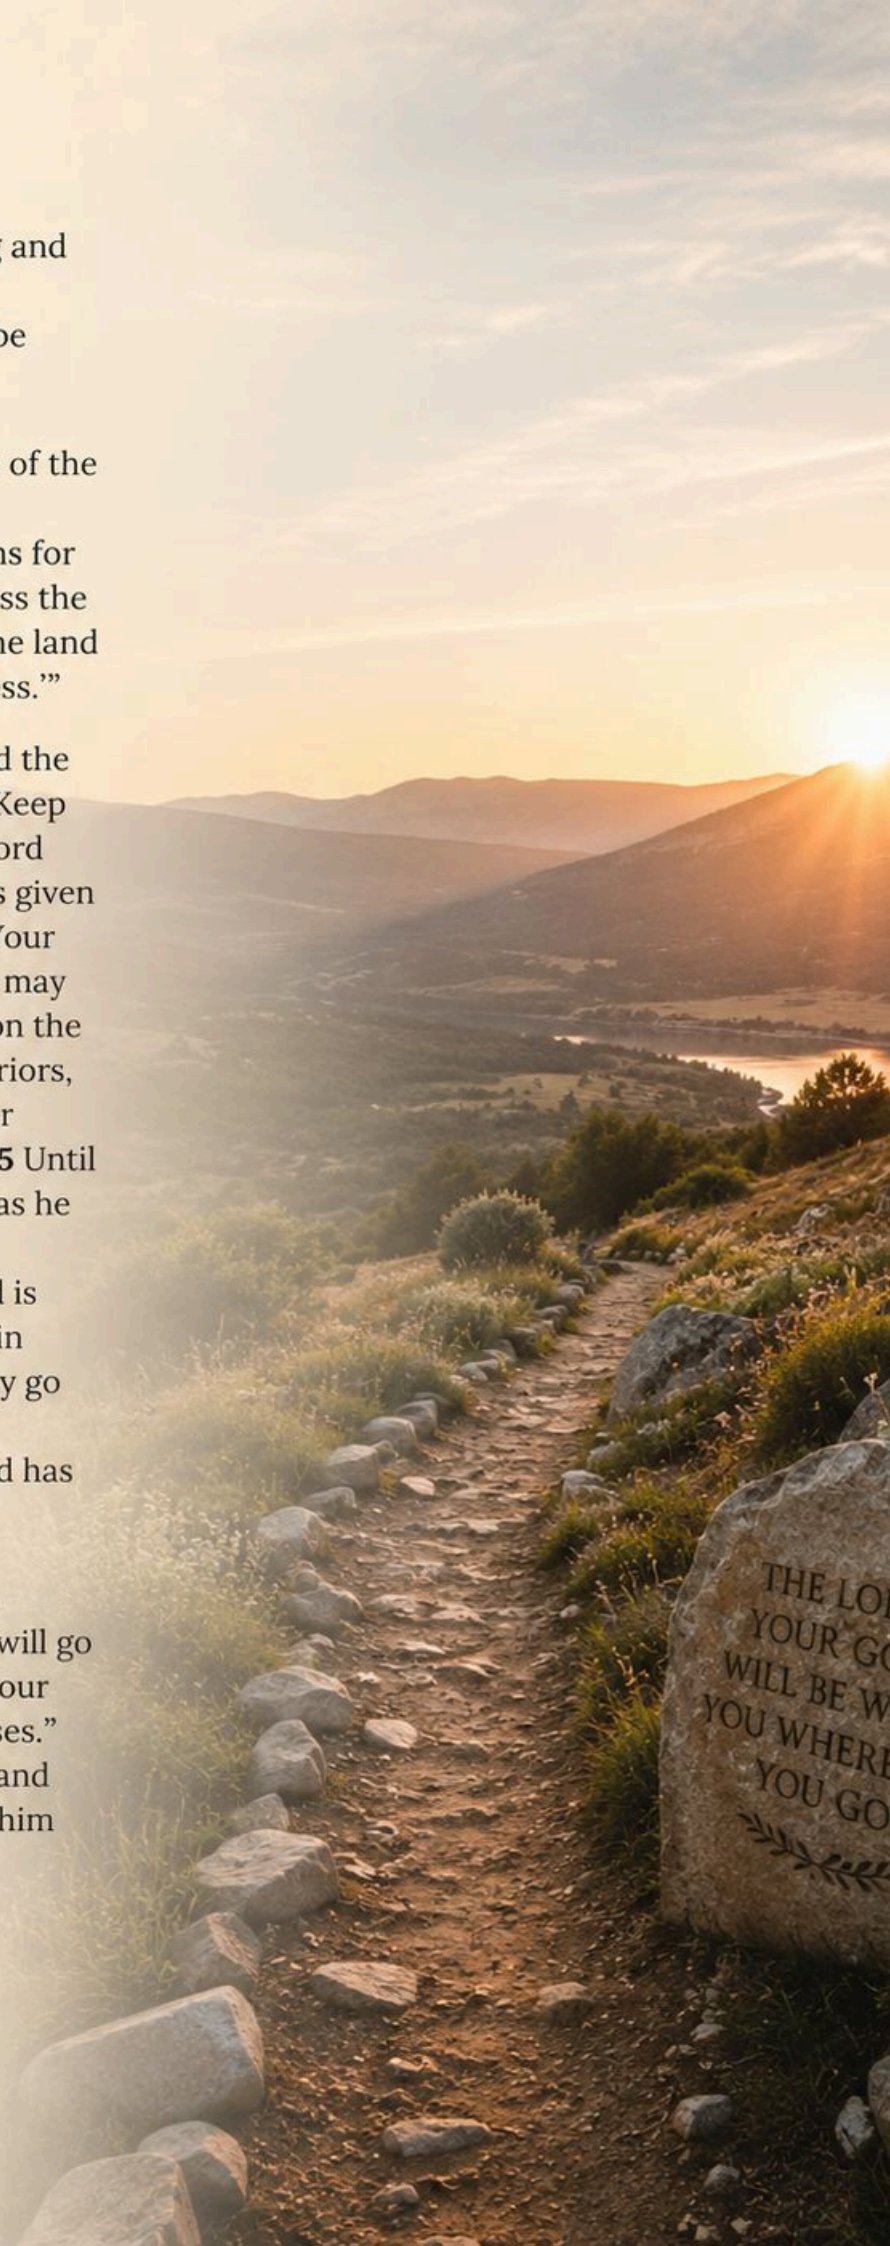

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people: “11 Pass through the camp and command the people, ‘Prepare provisions for yourselves, for in three days you will cross the Jordan to go in and take possession of the land the Lord your God is giving you to possess.’”

12 To the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said, 13 “Keep in mind what Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you: ‘The Lord your God has given you rest and has given you this land. 14 Your wives, your little ones and your livestock may remain in the land that Moses gave you on the other side of the Jordan; but all your warriors, all your able-bodied men, must cross over armed in front of your fellow Israelites. 15 Until the Lord gives your fellow Israelites rest as he has given you rest, and until they take possession of the land the Lord your God is giving them, you must cross over armed in front of them. 16 Then afterward you may go back to the land of your possession and receive the inheritance the Lord your God has given you.’”

17 So they answered Joshua, “We will do everything you have commanded us; we will go wherever you send us. 18 May the Lord your God be with you, just as he was with Moses.” “Anyone who rebels against your orders and does not obey everything you command him will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous.”

- 1 Then Joshua rose early in the morning and they set out from Shittim.
- 2 And they came to the Jordan, he and all the people of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.
- 3 After three days the officers went through the camp
- 4 and commanded the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God and the Levitical priests bearing it, then you shall set out from your place and follow it."
- 5 Then Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."
- 6 And Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on before the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.
- 7 And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you."
- 8 And you shall command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony, "When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan."

Joshua 3:9-17

9 And Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do amazing things among you."

10 And Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on before the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went on before the people.

11 Then the Lord said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you."

12 And it shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the Lord, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan will be cut off from flowing, and the waters that come down from upstream will stand in one heap."

13 So it was, when the people set out from their tents to pass over the Jordan, the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people,

14 when they came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest),

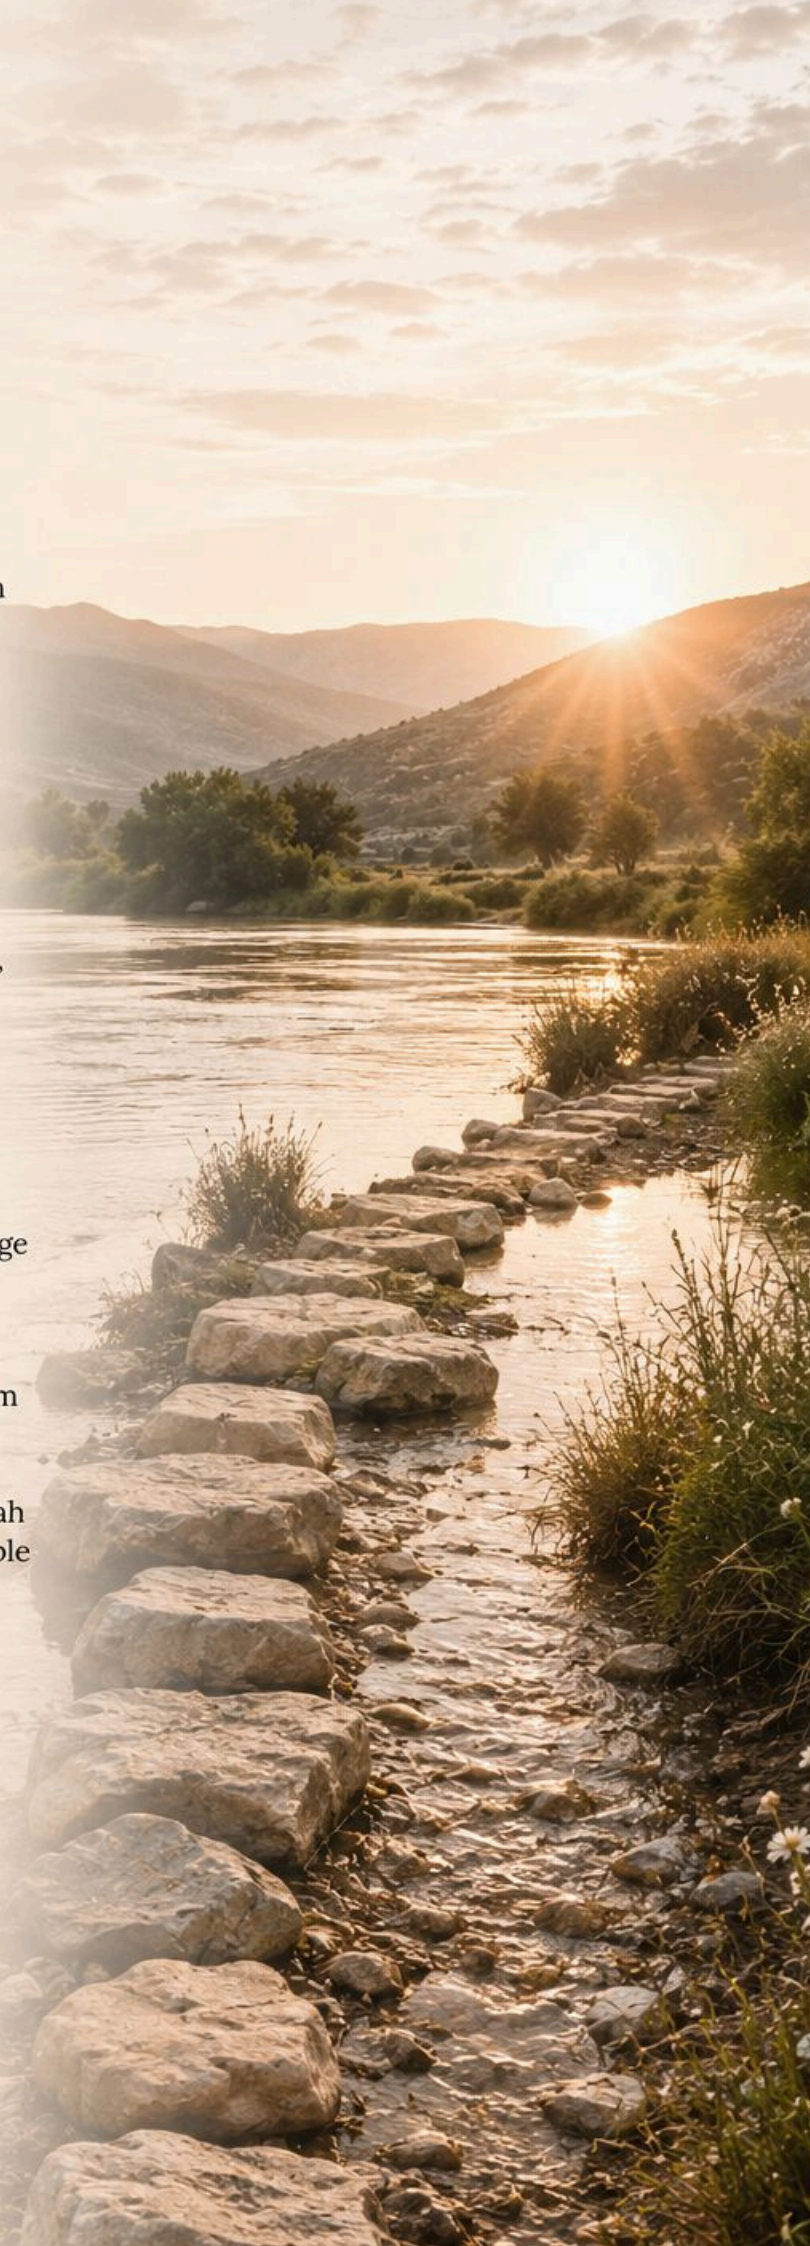

15 that the waters which came down from upstream stood still, and rose up in one heap very far away, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and the waters that went down toward the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea) were completely cut off. And the people passed over opposite Jericho.

16 And the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of the Lord stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan; and all Israel passed over on dry ground, until all the people had passed completely over the Jordan.

17 Now it came to pass, when all the people had completely passed over the Jordan, that the Lord said to Joshua, "Select for yourselves twelve men from the people, one from each tribe,"

- 1 When all the people had finished crossing over the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua,
- 2 "Take twelve men from the people, from each tribe a man,
- 3 and command them, "Take twelve stones from here out of the midst of the Jordan, from the place where the priests have stood, and carry them over with you and set them down in the place where you lodge tonight.
- 4 So Joshua called the twelve men that he had appointed from the people of Israel,
- 5 and Joshua said to them, "Pass on before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel,
- 6 that this may be a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask their fathers, 'What do these stones mean to you?'
- 7 then you shall let your children know, saying, 'Israel crossed over this Jordan on dry ground.'
- 8 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up before us until we had crossed over,
- 9 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty, so that you may fear the LORD your God forever."

Joshua 4:10-16 ESV

10 Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant had stood. And they are there to this day.

11 And the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the Lord had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua. And the people hurried over.

12 And the twelve stones that they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal.

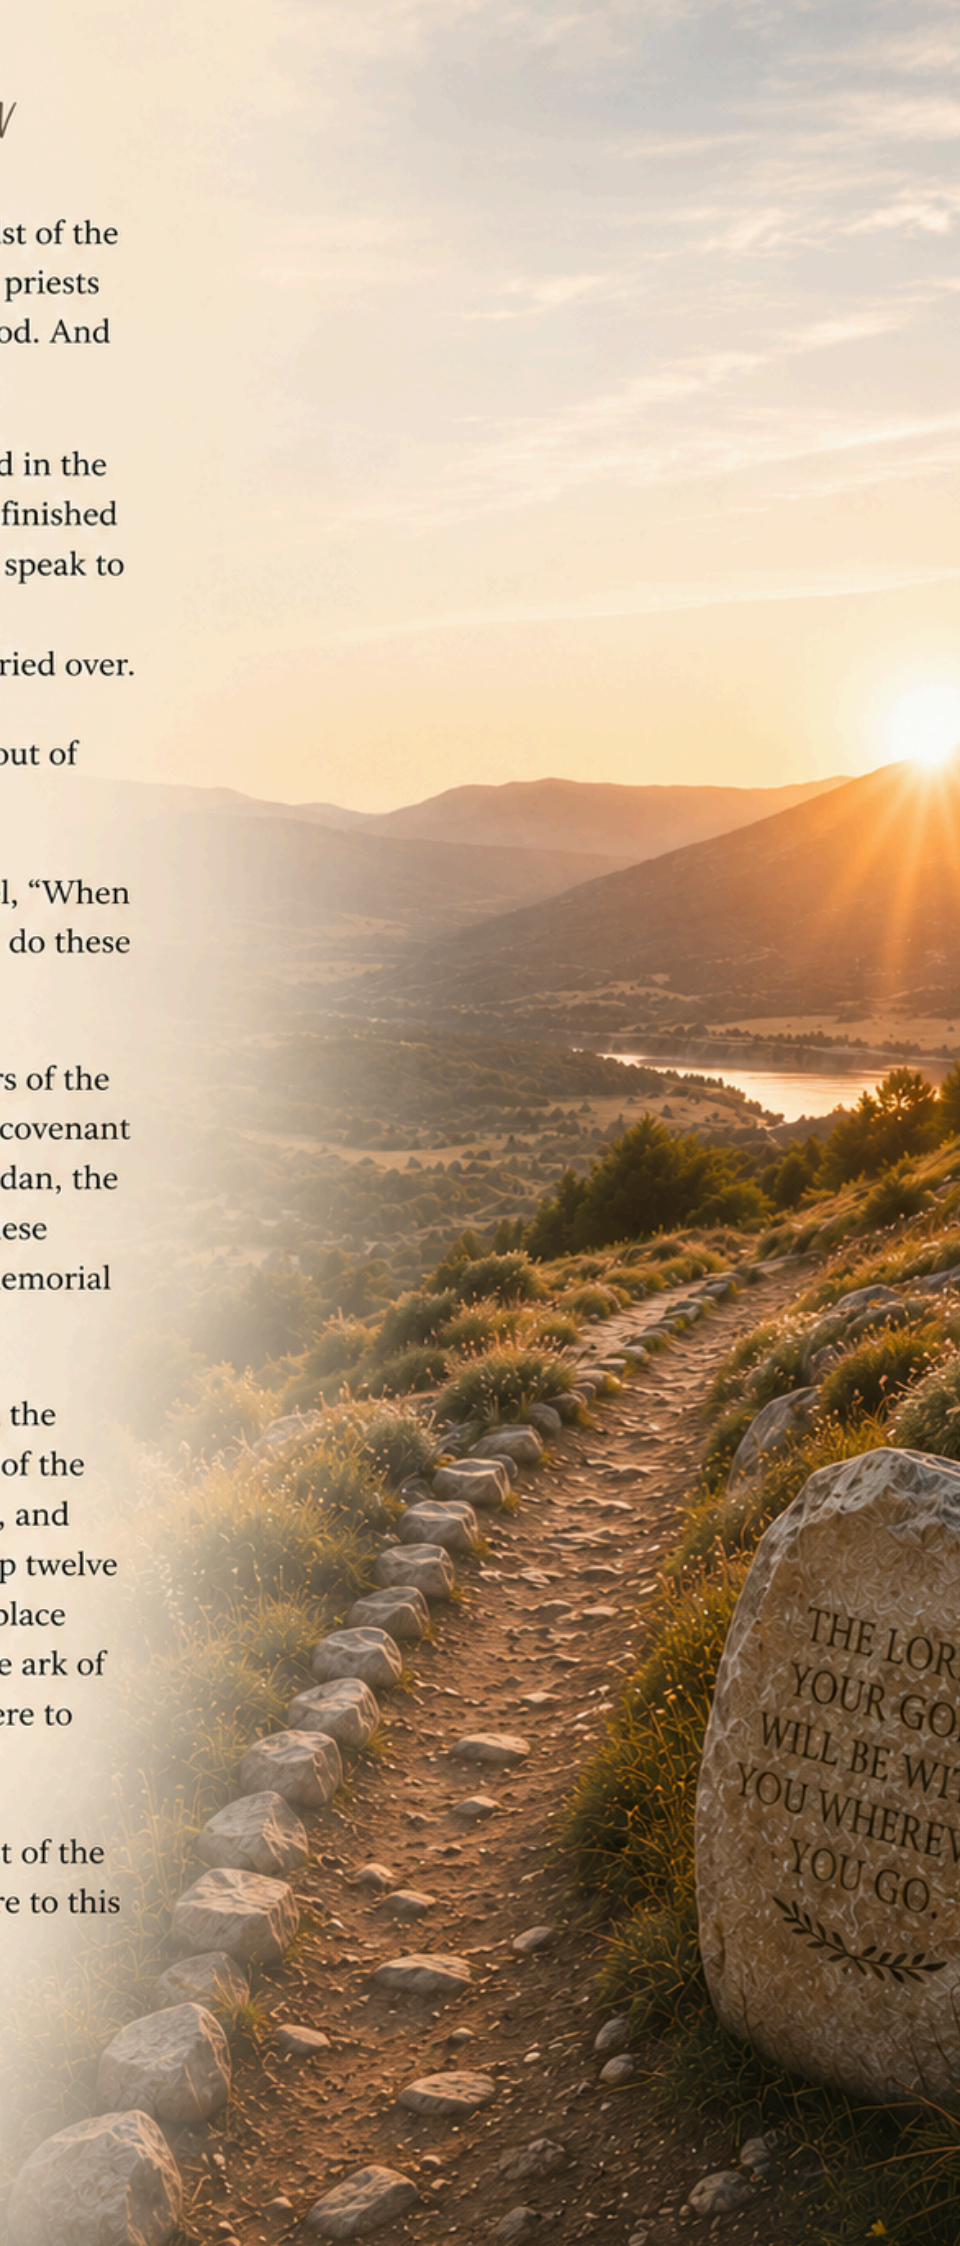

13 And Joshua said to the people of Israel, "When your children ask in time to come, 'What do these stones mean to you?'

14 then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord. When it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be to the people of Israel a memorial forever."

15 And the people of Israel did so. When the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the Lord had crossed over before the people, and when they had crossed over, Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant had stood. And they are there to this day.

16 The twelve stones that are in the midst of the Jordan, which Joshua set up, shall be there to this day.

Joshua 4:17-24 ESV

17 Then the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the Lord stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan, and all Israel came over on dry ground, until all the people had finished crossing over the Jordan.

18 And the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the Lord stood in the midst of the Jordan on dry ground, while all Israel passed over on dry ground, until all the nation had completed the crossing over the Jordan.

19 On the tenth day of the first month the people came up from the Jordan and camped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.

20 And those twelve stones, which they took out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal.

21 And Joshua said to the people of Israel, "In days to come, when your children ask their fathers, 'What do these stones mean?'

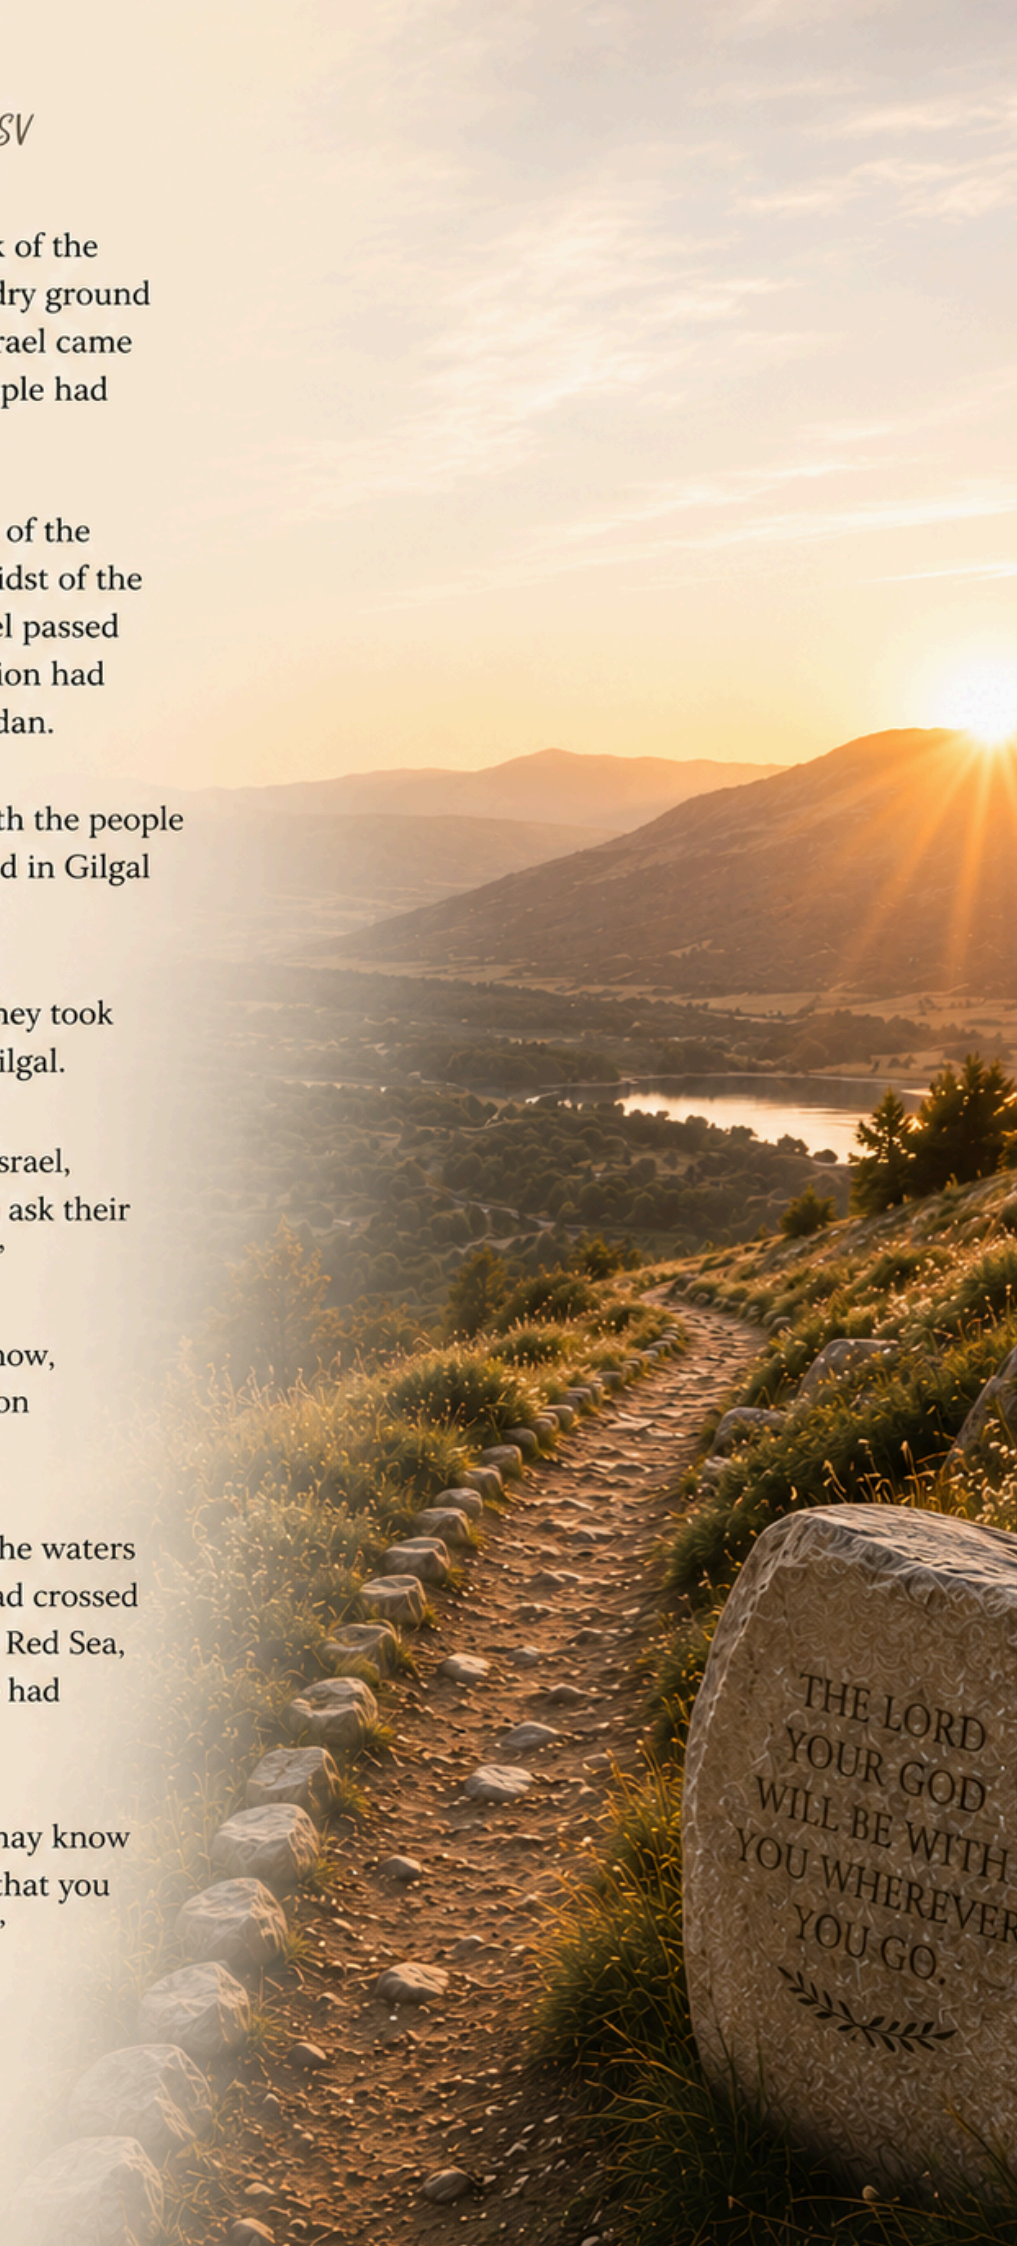

22 then you shall let your children know, saying, 'Israel came over this Jordan on dry ground.'"

23 For the Lord your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you, until you had crossed over, as the Lord your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up before us, until we had crossed over,

Joshua 2:24

We are living in a new season that calls for a new way of living. The world around us is changing quickly. We face challenges, opposition, and uncertainty, and at times we may feel small, unprepared, unqualified, or afraid.

Although Israel feared the people in the land, the people in the land were actually more afraid of Israel because of what God had done. Instead of giving in to fear, the Israelites chose to trust God's promises.

We are called to do the same. Our confidence comes from knowing who God is—His character, His promises, His faithfulness, what He has done, and what He has spoken to us.

"I set my face to follow where You are leading me."

Take a moment to reflect on what is holding you back from fully following God's leading. Then spend time remembering who God is, what He has done for you, and what He has spoken over your life.

Finally, jump over the rope as a symbol of taking a step of faith. If you are unable to jump, simply step across it, declaring that you choose to trust God and follow wherever He leads.

9. God what are you saying to KKI.

Take time to listen to the Lord and then write down or draw on the big sheet what you sense God is saying.

10. Jubilee Year – Mega Sabbath

Leviticus 25:9-10

9 Then you shall sound the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonement you shall sound the trumpet throughout all your land. 10 And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, when each of you shall return to his property and each of you shall return to his clan.

Jesus is the bringer of Jubilee

Jesus said in Luke 4: 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.”

Trumpet Blast: Make trumpet sound proclaiming a Jubilee year for you/us

In the Jubilee year different things take place.

One. Cancellation of debts: take time to declare to yourself
I’m forgiven, Jesus forgave me, I’m forgiven, I’m free.

Two. Liberation of slaves: I’m no longer a slave, I’m a son of God
John 15 I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master’s business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. Set me free Father from Three. Rest for the earth: God also wants me to enter His rest.

Matthew 11:28-30 NIV 28 “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”
Breath deep, rest in Him, receive his love and peace and rest. Allow Him to minister to you.

Four. Restoration of Land: What belongs to me, or to us as a ministry, that the enemy or life's circumstances have taken from me/us? Now is the time to reclaim it. Take a moment to make a list and respond.

In the year before the Jubilee, God provides in abundance so that His people have more than enough for the Year of Jubilee. God takes care of our needs, and He provides for us.

Take time to enjoy some of the snacks. Our Father provides—He is our good Father.
